THE COMMON PEOPLE.

By J. Dallas Bowser.

The common people are the bulk of the people of this country. It was Abraham Lincoln who said that the Lord must have loved the common people more than any other class or He would not have made so many of them. These are the people who go about the task of getting up early and working late for wife and children and home. They are seldom brought into the limelight to figure in scandals and divorce cases. Their names do not figure in the society columns of the newspapers and they keep out of jail or disgrace. They are for the most part loyal citizens loving their flags and are obedient to the laws. They are not the leaders of mobs nor the abettors of the great wars. The kings, militarists and radicals were responsible for the world war. It was not the common people who put Jesus to death and murdered Lincoln. Of Jesus it was said: "The common people heard him gladly. It was the common people of this country who put prohibition on the map and won a suffrage. It is the common people who make up the rank and file of the church membership of the country. They are the faithful believers in the gospel of Jesus Christ, and are neither infidels nor agnostics. It is the common people who keep their children regularly in school, who find less fault with the teachers, and who are the most loyal supporters and patrons of their men in the professions of medicine and the law. It is they who dig in the mines, cultivate the farms and build the roads and highways. They are not aristocrats nor snobs. When Jesus said to his disciples "ye are the salt of the earth," he was doubtless speaking to common day laborers, men for the most part without social standing, education or fortune. Many of the great souls of the world who have passed on to be enrolled in that bright and shining galaxy of the immortals of the past, sprang from the tang and mold of common life, from Christ to Abraham Lincoln, from Mary Magdalene to Joan of Arc, from Crispus Attucks to John Brown from Frederick Douglass to Paul Lawrence Dunbar and from Garfield to Booker Washington. The common people are still the "salt of the earth," the empire builders, members of the world's great parliament of MAN.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Murray are the proud parents of a fine girl. Mrs. Edd Dodd and Miss C. M. Brown visited in Kansas City this week. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith have a daughter who is very ill. Rev. Bowren and Charles Pratt were the guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Smith. The picnic by Mrs. Harden was a success. Mr. Ralph Honley of Warrensburg is visiting parents this week.
